New Zealand: Gay Ski Week

Celebrating its eighth season, Gay Ski Week New Zealand is set to be bigger and better than ever with about 1,000 guests expected in Queenstown this year. Kicking off September 4th and winding up on the 12th, there's plenty to do besides hitting the slopes. On top of a range of parties for every night of the week, don't forget to pack some sexy underwear for the DNA-hosted Hot Pool Party!
